

Best Doctors® signs exclusivity deal with Aviva Life & Pensions Ireland Limited.

Best Doctors and Aviva Life & Pensions Ireland Limited have announced a new agreement. The terms of the agreement will mean that until December 2015, with the exception of existing clients of Best Doctors, Aviva Life & Pensions Ireland Limited will be the only insurer including Best Doctors in individual long-term protection policies sold in the Republic of Ireland.

The service will be available to all new individual Term Life, Specified Illness and Income Protection customers and their immediate families.

Commentating on the partnership, Michael Cosgrave, Director of Distribution, Marketing & Propositions at Aviva Life & Pensions Ireland Limited said "Best Doctors has become a valued addition to our proposition, giving us a significant competitive edge whilst giving our customers the ultimate peace of mind. I'm a great believer in Best Doctors and know they are by far the best at what they do. This agreement demonstrates how serious we are about offering our customers the best too."

Dominic Howard, Director, Europe, Best Doctors said "We are looking forward to continuing our strong partnership with Aviva Life & Pensions and underlining our commitment to them. Our service complements what is already a strong product and is valued not just by Aviva customers but also their brokers."

Best Doctors

Best Doctors, the expert medical second opinion provider (www.bestdoctors.ie) is one of the world's fastest-growing global health companies. Founded in 1989 by Harvard Medical School professors, Best Doctors focuses on the needs of people and their doctors, and seamlessly integrates its trusted services with employers' other health-related benefits. The company serves 30 million members worldwide.